

The Earth Is the Lord's

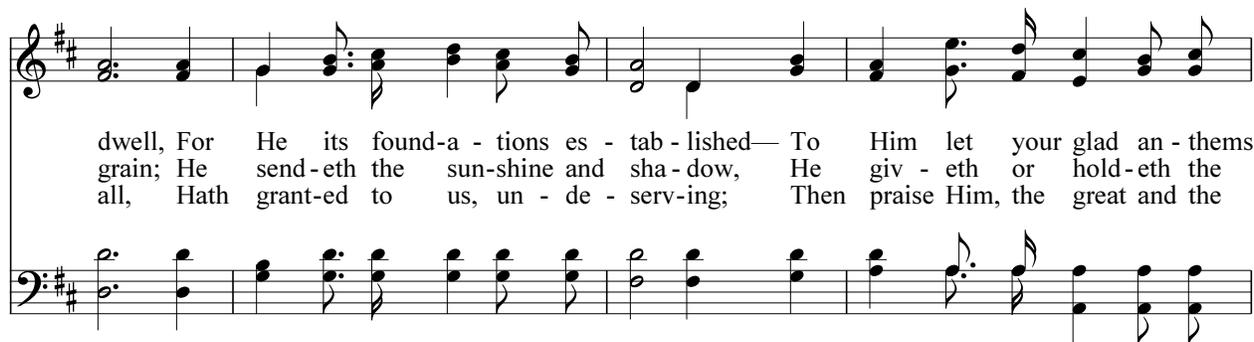

Joseph Berg Esenwein, 1894

Joseph Berg Esenwein

$\text{♩} = 100$

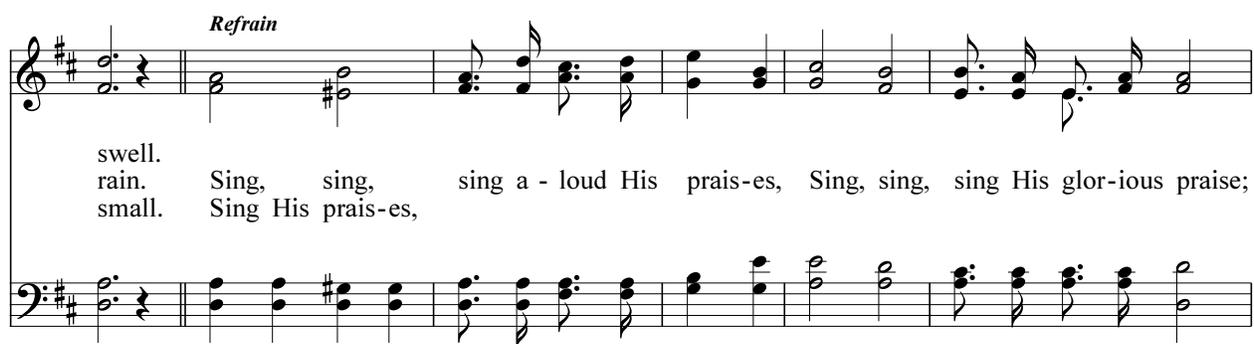

1. The earth is the Lord's, and its full - ness, And they that up - on it do
2. The fruits of the earth are His boun - ties, His gift is the gold - en - hued 3. The joys of the har - vest thanks - giv - ing, The Lord, bless - èd giv - er of dwel, For He its found - a - tions es - tab - lished— To Him let your glad an - thems grain; He send - eth the sun - shine and sha - dow, He giv - eth or hold - eth the all, Hath grant - ed to us, un - de - serv - ing; Then praise Him, the great and the swell.

Refrain

rain. Sing, sing, sing a - loud His prais - es, Sing, sing, sing His glor - ious praise; small. Sing His prais - es,

Glad, glad, glad thanks - giv - ing ren - der, Sweet - est songs to Je - sus raise.
Glad thanks - giv - ing,