1. The friends we have trust-ed may turn us a - way, The lips that have praised us may
2. The hopes that we cher-ish may prove to be vain, And per-ish the joys that we
3. The beau-ti-ful morn-ing a tem-pest may bring, And light-nings a-bout us may
4. Then let us in glad-ness o-bey His com-mands, His love and His good-ness pro-

blame; But there is one friend who will ne-ver be-tray, For Je-sus is ev-er the same.
claim; But there is a pro-mise that still will re-main, For Je-sus is ev-er the same.
flame; But, cer-tain as win-ter is fol-lowed by spring, The Sav-ior is ev-er the same.
- claim; The King of all king-doms and Lord of all lands Is ev-er and ev-er the same.

Refrain

Ev-er the same, ev-er the same, Je-sus is ev-er the same; Ev-er the same, ev-er the same, Yes,

Je-sus is ev-er the same.
is ev-er the same.
