

There's a Friend

R. M. McKinney, 1877

R. B. Mahaffey

♩=100

1. There's a friend in ev - ery sor - row, There's a balm for ev - ery woe;
2. Faint - ing mul - ti - tudes have blessed Him, For He turned their grief to joy;
3. When we cross the roll - ing bil - lows, Jor - dan's ri - ver, swell - ing high,

There's a bliss for each to - mor - row, Trust in Je - sus as you go; He who walk - ing Fil - thy le - pers cleansed in mer - cy, Raised to life the wi - dow's boy; Pray - ing on the Who will crown us heirs of glo - ry, In the land be - yond the sky? When we reach the on the wa - ter, E'en on Gal - i - lee's dark wave, At the call of doubt - ing Pe - ter, lone - ly moun - tain, More than this He did for me. Shed His blood to buy my ran - som, heav'n - ly ci - ty, Who will take us by the hand? Who will give the wel - come plaud - it,

Refrain
Stretched His migh - ty arm to save.
Dy - ing on the curs - ed tree. Je - sus, Je - sus, A friend that is faith - ful and In the bless - ed glo - ry land? Je - sus, our friend, Je - sus, our friend, true; Je - sus, Je - sus, He suf - fered for me and for you.

Je - sus, our friend, Je - sus, our friend,