1. There is won - drous joy when the Sav - ior's voice we hear,
 2. When from sin and shame souls to ho - li - ness as - cend,
 3. La - bor shall be sweet, tri - als cease to harm or fret,
 4. Then we'll la - bor on, striv - ing souls for Christ to win,

When His blood from con-dem-na - tion frees us; But a deep - er bliss shall in Bound-less joy and ho - ly rap - ture seize us; Deep - er bliss a - waits, ec - sta -
 From our bur - dens sore this hope will ease us; In our crowns of life Christ will Earth - ly joys ne'er sa - tis - fy or please us; Look - ing to the end, when Heav'n's

Refrain

Heav'n to us ap - pear, When we greet the souls we brought to Je - sus!
 - sy that shall not end, When we greet the souls we brought to Je - sus! That will be a glad - ness!
 won - drous jew - els set, For we'll greet the souls we brought to Je - sus!
 courts we en - ter in, When we greet the souls we brought to Je - sus!

That will be a joy! When we greet the souls we brought to Je - sus! Oh, what songs of praise shall our ran-somed pow'rs em-ploy, When we greet the souls we brought to Je - sus!
