

The Blessèd Book

Birdie Bell, 1901

Adam Geibel

♩=108

1. There's a bless-èd Book that's giv-en For the sav - ing of man - kind; All who
2. In this Book we read of Je - sus Who once came to earth to save Dy - ing 3. Let us stu - dy it with pa - tience, Learn to love it more and more; It will read its pre - cious pag-es May a price-less trea - sure find; Rar - er than the gems which souls from sin's do - min-ion And the ter - ror of the grave; And our hearts are ne - ver teach us of the Sav - ior Whom our youth-ful hearts a - dore; If we heark-en to its spark-le In the mon-arch's beau - teous crown Are the mes-sag - es of par - don For the wea - ry Of the les - sons which we learn As we read the sto - ry o - ver, As the coun-sels, Heed its pre - cepts true and pure, Then our foot-steps will not wan-der From the souls in sin bowed down. sac - red leaves we turn. Bless-èd Book! be thou our guide; We would walk at Je - sus' path - way safe and sure.

Refrain

side; Teach us how to live each day As we tread the nar - row way.