

The Treasures of Heaven

Tullius Clinton O’Kane, 1870

Tullius Clinton O’Kane

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. There’s a crown in Heav’n for the striv - ing soul, Which the bless - èd Je - sus Him -
 2. There’s a rest in Heav’n for the wea - ry soul, ’Tis for all by care and by
 3. There’s a joy in Heav’n for the mourn - ing soul; Though the tears may fall all the
 4. There’s a peace in Heav’n for the trou - bled soul, Where the wick - ed shall from their
 5. There’s a home in Heav’n for the faith - ful soul, In the ma - ny man - sions pre -

- self will place On the head of each who shall faith - ful prove, Ev - en un - to death, in the sin op - pressed; To the sons of God it re - main - eth sure, And the Pro - phet says, ’tis a earth - ly night; Yet the clouds of sad - ness will break a - way, And re - joic - ing comes with the troub - ling cease, And to all the saints like a ri - ver flow, Through the end - less ag - es the
 - pared a - bove, Where the glor - i - fied shall for - ev - er sing, Of a Sav - ior’s free and un - heav’n - ly race. Oh, may that crown in Heav’n be mine, And I a - mong the an - gels “glor - ious rest.” Oh, may that rest in Heav’n be mine, And I a - mong the an - gels morn - ing light. Oh, may that joy in Heav’n be mine, And I a - mong the an - gels stream of peace. Oh, may that peace in Heav’n be mine, And I a - mong the an - gels

 - bound - ed love. Oh, may that home in Heav’n be mine, And I a - mong the an - gels shine; Be Thou, O Lord! my dai - ly guide, Let me ev - er in Thy love a - bide.

 shine; Be Thou, O Lord! my dai - ly guide, Let me ev - er in Thy love a - bide.
 shine; Be Thou, O Lord! my dai - ly guide, Let me ev - er in Thy love a - bide.
 shine; Be Thou, O Lord! my dai - ly guide, Let me ev - er in Thy love a - bide.
 shine; Be Thou, O Lord! my dai - ly guide, Let me ev - er in Thy love a - bide.