

There's a Wonderful Tree

Mary Noel Meigs, 1869

Fred Schilling

♩ = 85

1. There's a won-der-ful tre - e, a won-der - ful tree, The hap - py child - ren re-2. It is no - t a - lone in the su - m - mer's sheen, Its boughs are broad and its
 3. It is al - l a - lone with its t - a - pers' glow, That flash on sh - in - ing
 4. And a vo - ice is te - ll - ing its boughs a - mong, Of shep - herds watch-ing and
 5. So then spre-ad thy branch-es, O won-der - ful tree, And bring some da - in - ty

- joice to see; It is spread - ing its branch - es year by year, It leaves are green; It is bloom - ing for us as the wild winds blow, And eyes be - low, And the strange, sweet fruit on each la - den bough, Is an - gels' song; Of a ho - ly Babe in a man - ger low, The gift to me; May you fi - ll my heart with burn - ing love, To comes from the for - est to flour - ish here. Oh, this beau-ti - ful tree, with its earth is all white with the feather - y snow; And this won - der - ful tree, with its all to be plucked by the ga - therers now. Oh! this won - der - ful tree, with its beau - ti - ful sto - ry of long a - go. When a ra - di - ant star threw its Him who didst come from His home a - bove; From His beau-ti - ful home with the branch-es wide, Is al - ways, is al - ways bloom - ing at Christ-mas tide. branch-es wide, Bears ma - ny, bears ma - ny a gift for the Christ-mas tide.

 branch-es wide, We hail it, we hail it, with joy at the Christ-mas - tide.
 beams so wide, To her - ald, to her - ald the ear - li - est Christ-mas - tide.
 glor - i - fied, To give us, to give us the jo - y of Christ-mas - tide.

