Mercy Is Free

Elisha Albright Hoffman, 1880

Benjamin Franklin Nysewander

♩=95

1. Tho' far I have strayed from the fold of the Lord, Tho'
2. Tho' deep-ly my soul is pol-lut-ed by sin, Tho'
3. O Lord! I am weak-est of all that may come, But
4. Re-ceive me, my Sav-ior, and save me from sin; Re-oft I have slight-ed His Spir-it and Word, Yet hum-bled, re-pent-ant, to I am de-praved and un-ho-ly with-in, Yet trust-ing for mer-cy I yet in Thy bo-som of love there is room; I know Thou wilt wel-come a -move all the guilt and de-file-ment with-in; I'm trust-ing a-lone for sal-

Je-sus I flee, Know-ing that His won-drous grace can save ev-en me.
come, Lord, to Thee, Know-ing that Thy blood has power to save ev-en me.
sin-ner like me, Thou hast ful-ly pur-chased peace and par-don for me.
-va-tion in Thee, Let Thy ten-der mer-cy fall this mo-ment on me.

Refrain

Won-der-ful love— flow-ing so free! There is grace and mer-cy for a sin-ner like me.