

Not Tonight

Stella May Thompson, 1913

Horace Homer Holley

♩=95

1. Tho' you've wan - dered, poor sin - ner, a - way from the light, The Re-
 2. You have on - ly to come and His bless - ings re - ceive, For He's
 3. There's a time for re - pent - ance, but soon 'twill have passed, O dear
 4. "Not to - night," you may say in de - fi - ance, O soul, And be-

- deem - er will wel - come you home; But you list to the tempt - er and rea - dy just now to for - give; Will you speak, "Not to - night," and your sin - ner, what then will you do? Your de - ci - sion to - night will bring
 - lieve there's no risk in de - lay; But when fur - i - ous bil - lows of

Refrain

say, "Not to - night, In the fu - ture some time I will come." Sav - ior still grieve, And a - way from His re - fuge e'er live? Not to - night, I will sor - row at last, When there'll be no re - demp - tion for you. but I will wait, Not to - death o'er you roll, For His mer - cy you can - not then pray!

wait, For the path - way of sin seems so bright; It will
 - night, but I will wait, yes, seems so bright;

not be too late; Yes, some time I will come— not to - night.
 be late, too late, It will not be late, too late I will come, but not to - night.