

Soldiers of the King

Lily Rutherford Morris, 1910

Lily Rutherford Morris

$\text{♩} = 108$

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of four systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are as follows:

1. We are march-ing on, ten thou-sand strong, To bat-tle for the
2. Will-ing work-ers, come, let ev-ery-one Step out for God and
3. We are march-ing on, a glad-some throng Of Chris-tian sol-diers

Lord; In His name we fight for the cause of right, Ac-cord-ing to His love; Just a word in need, or a kind-ly deed, Makes vic-t'ry for-ward brave; To the front we go, with our hearts a-glow, O see our ban-ner word; Ga-th'ring up each day, a-long the way, Re-cruits for Him so move; Ne-ver fail to do what is asked of you, It may be just a wave; Yes, the foe we'll meet, but oh, how sweet To con-quer for the true, O sol-diers brave with cheer and hope to save, O smile, 'Twill help to win the fight that you are in, Your right! With hearts sin-cre, be there no need to fear, Suf-

Refrain

come, there's need of you.
part is well worth - while. Sing, O sing, Make
- fi - cient in His might. Sing glad hal - le - lu - jahs, sing, sing, sing, glad hal - le - lu - jahs ring, As we march a - long, let us shout in song The ring in joy - ful song prais - es of our King; Yes sing, O sing, Make sing glad hal - le - lu - jahs, sing as you march a - long, glad hal - le - lu - jahs ring, As we march a - long, Shout His praise in song, O sol - diers of the King.