

For Love of Me

Frank Granstaff, 1908

Charles Howard Marsh, 1908

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. For love of me, He left a throne And came in con - de - scen - sion low; He
2. For love of me, He took my name, That He to me might Sav - ior be; En-
3. For love of me, He went, thorn crowned, To cru - el death up - on the tree; By
4. Ex - alt - ed high, He now doth reign Lord ov - er all, the Prince of Life; Till sought me when I wan - dered lone In my dark sin and grief and woe.

Refrain

- dured the scorn, the grief, the shame, And, sin - less, bore sin's pen - al - ty. O foe re - viled, by friend dis - owned, And dy - ing, won the vic - to - ry.
He in power shall come a - gain To ban - ish sin and end the strife.

match-less grace, that He should deign, For love of me, To tread the way of bit - ter pain, To Cal - va - ry.