1. When the cares of life are crowd-ing Thick and fast up - on your
2. What a bless-ing when temp - ta - tions Come with ov - er - whelm-ing
3. When our souls are freed from sor - rows, And the glad new day has soul, And your light has turned to dark-ness Ere you reach the longed for power, And a sin seems O so lit - tle, In the weak-ness of the dawned, We shall see with bright-ened vi - sion Where the dark des - pairs had goal, Let your heart be brave and trust-ing, While you clasp the Sav - ior's hour, That we have a lov - ing Je - sus By whose grace the soul exyawned. We may look in - to the beau-ty Of His face, in that fair hand; For, no mat - ter what the bur-den, He will sure - ly un-der - stand.

- pans, Gain-ing strength to meet and con-quer Just be - cause He un-der - stands.
land, See - ing all its love and glo-ry When we, too, shall un-der - stand.

Refrain

Just to know Je-sus cares, Just to know Je-sus cares; In the Just to know Je-sus cares, Just to know Je-sus cares; dark-est night, O what won-drous light! Just to know He cares.

Just to know Je-sus cares.
