

Perfect Trust

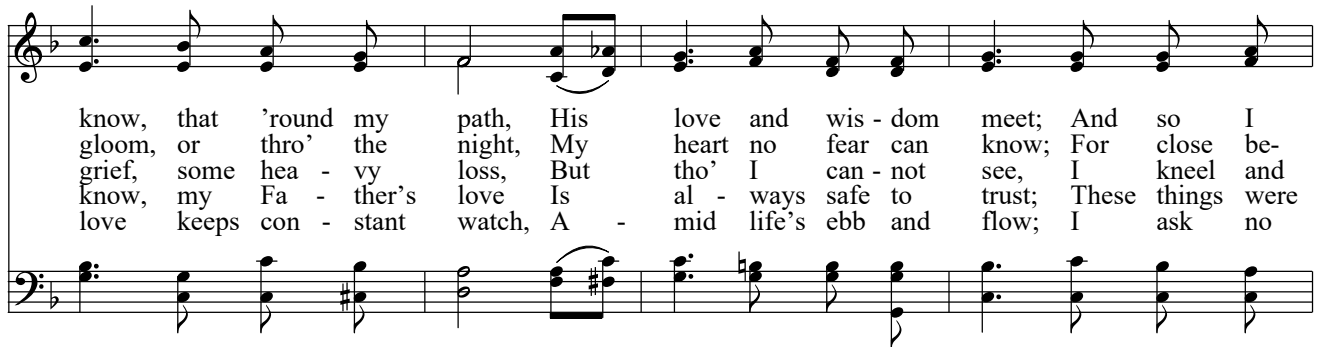

Lula Alexander, 1910

J. B. Bridgers

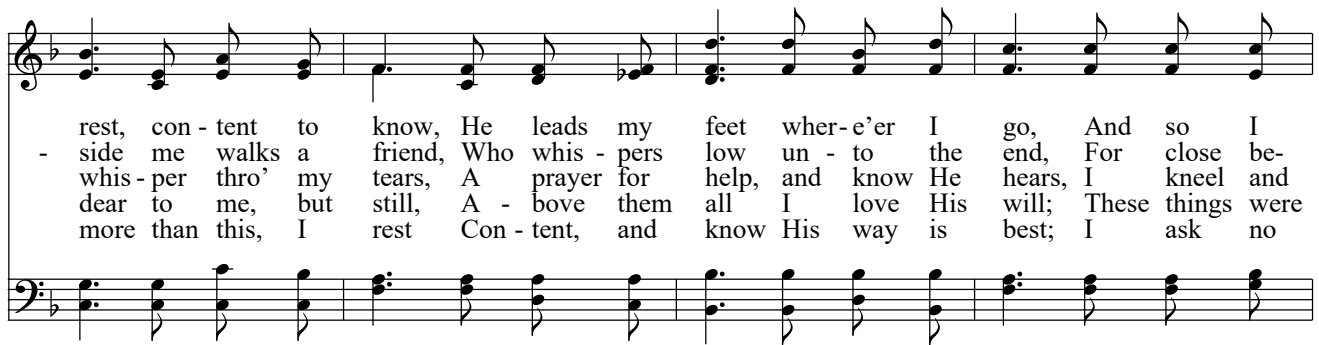

♩=90

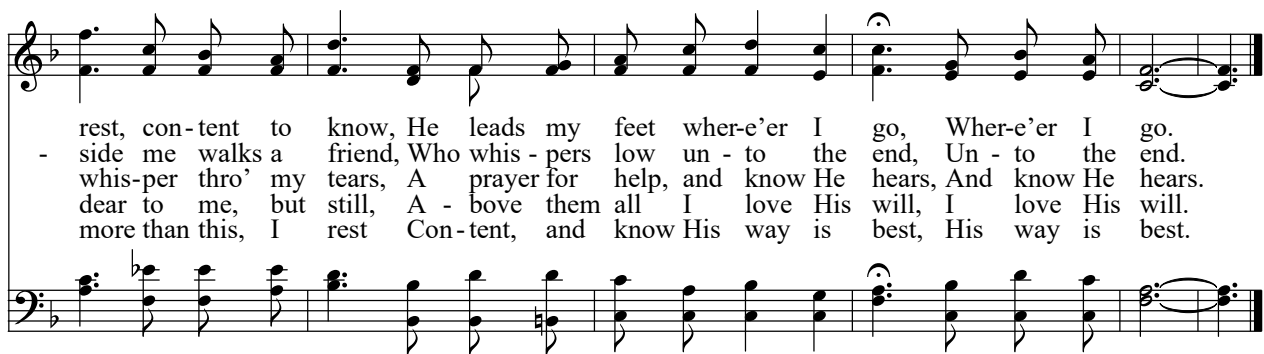

1. I may not al - ways know the way, Where - in God leads my feet, But this I
2. Some - times a - bove the path I tread, The clouds hang dark and low; But thro' the
3. I may not al - ways un - der - stand Just why He sends to me Some bit - ter
4. My cher - ished plans and hopes may fail, My i - dols turn to dust; But this I
5. Oh, pre - cious peace with - in my heart! O bless - ed rest, to know A Fa - ther's know, that 'round my path, His love and wis - dom meet; And so I gloom, or thro' the night, My heart no fear can know; For close be - grief, some hea - vy loss, But tho' I can - not see, I kneel and know, my Fa - ther's love Is al - ways safe to trust; These things were love keeps con - stant watch, A - mid life's ebb and flow; I ask no

- rest, con - tent to know, He leads my feet wher - e'er I go, And so I side me walks a friend, Who whis - pers low un - to the end, For close be - whis - per thro' my tears, A prayer for help, and know He hears, I kneel and dear to me, but still, A - bove them all I love His will; These things were more than this, I rest Con - tent, and know His way is best; I ask no rest, con - tent to know, He leads my feet wher - e'er I go, Wher - e'er I go.

- side me walks a friend, Who whis - pers low un - to the end, Un - to the end.
whis - per thro' my tears, A prayer for help, and know He hears, And know He hears.
dear to me, but still, A - bove them all I love His will, I love His will.
more than this, I rest Con - tent, and know His way is best, His way is best.