

So Do I

Mary E. Stainburn, 1860

Melody by H. Q. Willson, arr. Henry L. Tucker

$\text{♩} = 97$

1. The Sun - day school is my de - light, O let us hast - en there, O
2. When spring with many an op - 'ning flower And blos - som decks the ground, And
3. And when the cold and chil - ly blast Shall steal a - way the flowers, Shall
4. Yes, if the sweet - est flowers a - bound, Or earth is clothed in snow, Or let us hast - en there; 'Tis there we learn the way that's right, And blos - som decks the ground, When sum - mer's sun and gen - tle show Spreads steal a - way the flowers, When win - ter's snow is fall - ing fast, This earth is clothed in snow, In Sun - day school we will be found, For

Solo or Semi-Chorus

hear the voice of prayer, And hear the voice of prayer.
beau-ty all a - round, Spreads beau-ty all a - round, O I love the Sun-day joy shall still be ours, This joy shall still be ours.
there we love to go, For there we love to go.

Girls Boys Girls Boys All

school, O I love the Sun-day school, So do I, O I love the Sun-day school.