

Beyond

Leigh Mitchell Hodges, 1907

Robert Harkness

♩=93

1. I have a home be - yond the si - lent ri - ver, Where loved ones wait to
2. I have a friend who e'er a - waits my com - ing, He stands with arms out-
3. With home and friend be - yond the si - lent ri - ver, How fair will be the wel - come me some day; I have a guide to lead me safe-ly ov - er, When I have

- stretched to fold me in; And spite my woes and wear-i - ness of com-ing, He'll greet me day that knows no night! How sweet will be the songs I sing for ev - er, E - ter - nal-

Refrain reached the end - ing of earth's way. I have a home, a home be-yond the ri - ver, I have a with the love that bore my sin. I have a home be - yond the ri - ver, I
- ly in God's all gra - cious sight.

rest - ing place all love and peace; I have a home, a home be - yond the have a rest-ing place all love and peace; I have a home be - yond the ri - ver, rall.

ri - ver, Blest home be - yond, where toil and tears shall cease.
Blest home be - yond, Where toil and tears shall caswe.