

Holy Quietness

G. M. Hall, 1901

William James Kirkpatrick

♩=92

1. There's a still - ness in the air, And a vi - sion, bright and fair, Of the
2. Thro' the veil I now have come To the sac - red up - per room, Where my
3. In this bless - èd up - per room I am per - fect - ly at home, For my
4. O! this calm and heav'n - ly joy, No - thing ev - er can de - stroy While His glo - ry which sur - rounds the ho - ly place; For my Lord and Sav - ior sits in ma - jes - ty; Be - ing rest in Je - sus here is made com - plete; All my Spir - it guards and keeps the ho - ly place; While I soul with joy is filled, And my be - ing now is thrilled With a re - con - ciled to Him, And His Spir - it now with - in, All my strug - gles now are past, And my rest has come at last, At this trust with - out a fear, No dis - cord - ant sounds I hear, To dis -

Refrain

bless - èd, peace - ful, ho - ly qui - et - ness.
soul is hushed in ho - ly ec - sta - sy. O this ho - ly qui - et - ness!
ho - ly, qui - et, peace - ful mer - cy seat.
- turb my soul from rest - ing in His grace.

Ho - ly qui - et - ness! Rest - ful mo - ment of bliss! How my per - fect bliss!

heart with joy is filled! And my soul and be-ing thrilled With peace-ful, ho - ly qui-et-ho - ly

- ness.
qui-et-ness.