1. Hear the tramp of the mill - ions of the earth, Com - ing in their blind - ness,
2. Long in vain for a Sav - ior have they sought, Sac - ri - fice and al - tar
3. Not a land now is want - ing in a throng; Ea - ger - ly they hast - en, wretch - ed - ness and dearth; God has called, na - tions wake in glor - ious birth;

ne - ver peace have brought; Now they see what the heart of God hath wrought;
fill - ing earth with song; Grand the cho - rus, a bil - lion voic - es strong;

All the world is com - ing to the Sav - ior.
All the world is com - ing to the Sav - ior. Com - ing to the Sav - ior! Com - ing to the Sav - ior!
All the world is com - ing to the Sav - ior.

All the world re - joic - es o'er its king; For its help has come at last, And its pain and loss are past! All the world is com - ing to the Sav - ior.
