

Good News Comes o'er the Sea

Isaiah Baltzell, 1874

Isaiah Baltzell

$\text{♩} = 107$

1. Good news comes o'er the sea, And tells of vic - tory there; The
2. The glor - ious Gos - pel light, In splen - dor shines to - day, Where
3. They bade a - dieu to home, To friends and loved ones dear; They 4. Oh, see them com - ing home! The poor, de - grad - ed race! The 5. A - wake! the sun is high; The Mas - ter's call - ing you! Why hea - then bow the knee, In hum - ble, fer - vent prayer; Long naught but dark - est night Fell on the hea - then's way. Brave crossed the o - cean's foam, They land - ed safe - ly there. They Mas - ter bids them come To seek His sav - ing grace. At stand ye id - ly by? There's work for you to do! Your wait - ed we to hear The glor - ious tid - ings come, Pro - Chris - tians heard the cry That came a - cross the sea, "Come, raised the ban - ner bright On Af - ric's hos - tile shore, The Je - sus' feet they fall; To Heav'n they lift their cry; He treasures, prayers and tears, Go, lay at Je - sus' feet; And

Refrain

- claim-ing vic - tory there, Where dark - ness reigned a - lone.
 help us, ere we die, Come, help us to be free.”
 hea - then saw a light, Where dark - ness reigned be - fore. Re - joice, re-hears their sim - ple call— He saves them ere they die.
 soon we'll sing the song Of vic - to - ry com - plete.

- joice, Good news comes o'er the sea; Re - joice, re - joice, Good news comes o'er the sea;