

A Great Day in Zion

Albert H. Grove, 1903, alt.

Albert H. Grove

♩=88

1. Oh! what a great day in Zi-on 'twill be— When o - ver the ri - ver We
2. Oh! what a great day in Zi-on 'twill be— When souls shall be hap - py As
3. Oh! what a great day in Zi-on 'twill be— 'Mid sound-ing of trum-pets, With safe - ly have crossed; We'll meet our dear friends, Our loved ones we'll see, Un-ne - ver be - fore; From heart-aches and sor - row we shall be free, When harp in our hand; With an - gels of light, the glor - ies we'll see— Of

Refrain

- known to the world that is lost.
safe - ly we land on yon shore. What a great day in Zi-on 'twill be—Hea - ven, the par - a - dise land.

When we have crossed o'er Jor - dan's swift tide, Our voic - es will blend with an-gels in glee, While ho-ver-ing by His dear side.

