

Rest Over There

M. V. Saltmarsh, 1881

George E. Lee

$\text{♩} = 105$

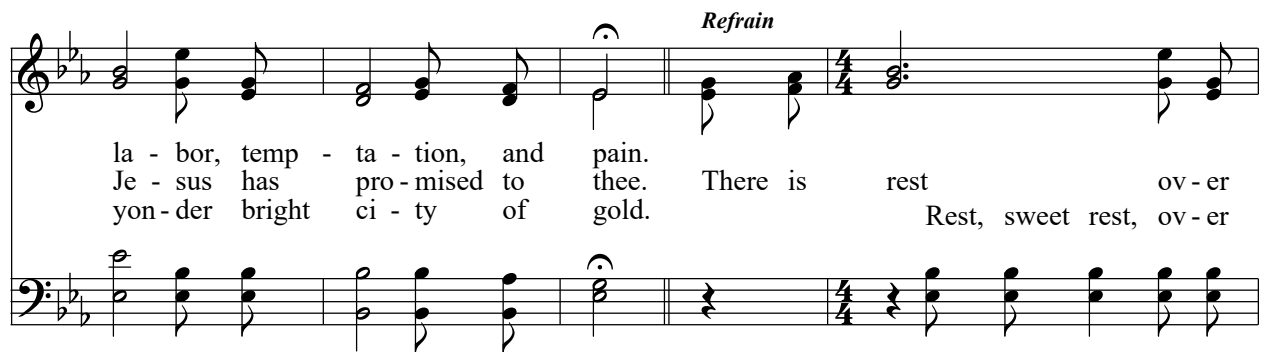

1. O Chris-tian, toil on, work, work while 'tis day, And soon a bright
2. Though oft - en your heart is sad and op - pressed, And wea - ry of 3. Yes, think of that home, of that hap - py home, Its glo - rious have crown you will gain. In the land of the blest the wea - ry shall rest From toil you may be; O, then think of that home where grief is un - known, That ne - ver been told; O, your rest will be sweet, your joy be com - plete, In la - bor, temp - ta - tion, and pain.

Refrain

Je - sus has pro - mised to thee. There is rest ov - er yon - der bright ci - ty of gold. Rest, sweet rest, ov - er there, bless - èd rest ov - er there, Sweet there, ov - er there, bless - èd rest, sweet rest ov - er there, ov - er there;

rest on that hea-ven-ly shore; Yes, there's rest o - ver there, sweet Rest, sweet rest, ov-er there, ov-er there, sweet

rest ov-er there, Where sor-row will come ne-ver - more.
rest ov-er there, Where sor-row will come ne-ver - more.