

I'll Go with Thee!

Alpheus Hagan Sembower, 1899

John Wesley Hughes

♩ = 85

1. My anx - ious soul from doubts and fears May not be al - ways free, But
2. There may be times when clouds o'er-spread The sky that hangs o'er me; There
3. There hangs, perhaps, a sha - dow now Thro' which I can-not see, But in 4. Ah! yes, His pro - mise is my own, My Mas-ter speaks to me: He thro' life's dark - est days and years It is e - nough for me To may be hours of fear and dread, Yes, there will sure - ly be; But the gath'r - ing gloom I'll bow To Him the sup - pli - ant knee, And bids me trust in Him a - lone, And wait His grace to see: His hear my gra - cious Mas-ter say, "Fear not, I'll go with thee!"

Refrain

cheer-ing words I hear Him speak, "Fear not, I'll go with thee!" Go down the way the hear His an - swer to my prayer: "Fear not, I'll go with thee!" Go down the way the pro - mise is for - ev - er good, "Fear not, I'll go with thee!"

Mas-ter leads, Al - though it dark may be, For all His prom-is - es are Mas - ter leads, Al-though so dark the way may seem to be, sure, And He will go, yes, He will go with thee!