

Thy Word

Anna Richarde, 1903

Arr. from Rodney by Isaac H. Meredith

$\text{♩} = 95$ Animato

1. Thy Word my lamp in dark-est night, Il-2. Give heed! give heed! O child of light, And 3. All hail! all hail! thou book di-vine! From

- lumes my path with its heav'n-ly light; This pre-cious lamp, my trea-sure dear, With shun the sha-dow of sin's dark night! God's Word your trem-bling steps will show, The whence the light on my path doth shine! The Spir-it will our teach-er be, And

Girls' Voices in Duet fade-less ray doth my spir-it cheer. My hope is based up-on that Word, That nar-row path where your feet must go. O watch and pray, and trust your Lord! Put won-drous mean-ings our hearts shall see. The light of Heav'n, so pass-ing fair, Will

All Voices in Parts

pre-cious mes-sage from my Lord; Tho' storms a-rise, it stands se-secure, For-full re-li-ance on His Word; No o-ther book can show the way From shine a-bout us ev-ery-where. We hear the lang-uage of the skies! The

- ev-er change-less it shall en-dure.
earth-ly night to the land of day. Guid-ed a-right, If ci-ty shin-eth be-fore our eyes.

1.

led by the beams of that light, Safe-ly and sure-ly we jour - ney Up to yon ci - ty so bright. Safe-ly and sure-ly we jour - ney Up to yon ci - ty so bright.

2.