

Christ Is Born

Laurene Highfield, 1913

Alfred Elisha Helton

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. To a far Ju - de - an hill, Through the si - lence sweet and still, Came a
 2. O'er the far Ju - de - an plain, Sound - ed out a glad re - frain, "Glo - ry, 3. Christ, the Lord, is born a king, Joy and hope and faith to bring, Glo - ry, shin - ing an - gel from the court of light; "Fear ye not," he soft - ly said, To the glo - ry be to God," the an - gels sang; Tell - ing of Mes - si - ah's birth, Bring - ing glo - ry be to God who reigns a - bove; Peace on earth, good will to men, Tell it shep - herds, sore a - fraid, "Un - to you the Christ is born this ho - ly night." Fear ye glad - ness to the earth, All the heav'n - ly arch - es with sweet mu - sic rang. o'er and o'er a - gain, All the world shall know the full - ness of His love.

Refrain

not that skies a - bove are glo - ry riv'n; An - gels hail the Sav - ior's birth, Peace and joy shall fill the earth; Un - to are glo - ry riv'n you in Beth - le - hem a king is giv'n, Glo - ry, glo - ry be to God who reigns in Heav'n!

 a king is giv'n