

Waiting and Watching

Mary B. Peck, 1879

Merritt Jerome Munger

$\text{♩} = 112$

1. Wait-ing and watch-ing for dawn-ing of day, Day ne-ver end-ing and
2. Wait ye, and watch, but oh, ne-ver des-pair! Wea-ry, and sor-row-ing
3. Led by a star, just one sin-gle clear ray, "Je-sus the Day-spring" by glo-ri-ous-ly bright; Pil-grims of earth, up-ward look on your way;

pil-grims of earth; Dark-est the night, just as dawn-ing so fair, wise men was found; In the bright realms where e-ter-nal is day,

Refrain

Faith-ful your vi-gil, you'll soon find the light.
On this dear world has its glo-ri-ous birth. Wait-ing and watch-ing, the
He is now wait-ing our faint hopes to crown.

mp cresc. rit.

light soon will dawn; Pil-grim, look up-ward, there shines the dawn.