

Comrades of the Cross

Frederick Watson Hannan, 1904

Isaac Hickman Meredith

♩=105

1. We are loy - al com - rades, com - rades of the cross, March - ing on to vic - tory,
 2. Com - rades, ne - ver fal - ter, lift the stand - ard high, Bear it brave - ly for - ward,
 3. On - ward, up - ward, com - rades, ral - ly for the fight, Charge the com - ing le - gions,
 4. Com - rades, who re - ceive Him, Mas - ter of us all, Trust, con - fess, o - bey Him, count - ing all but dross, For our great com - mand - er, who will lead us on, let its col - ors fly; Ev - ery call to du - ty, heed with - out de - lay, seize the sun - lit height; Hold it for your cap - tain, ne - ver call re - treat;

 hear His gra - cious call; Fol - low Him to Cal - vary, bear its shame and loss;

Refrain

Till the foe is van - quished and the vic - tory won.
 Brav - ing ev - ery dan - ger, hast - en to o - bey. For - ward, for - ward, then, ye com - rades, Soon we'll lay our tro - phies at the Mas - ter's feet. For - ward, for - ward, then, ye com - rades,
 We are loy - al com - rades, com - rades of the cross.

Loy - al, brave and strong, Christ is our com - mand - er, Vic - tory is our song, and strong,