

The Light upon the Way

Lura Case Warner Callin, 1908

Edmund Simon Lorenz

♩=105

1. When days are dark and cares op-press, When tri - als sore my soul dis - tress, I
 2. I find with-in its prom-ise sweet Strength for my heart, light to my feet; My
 3. O bless-èd Book! how cheer-ing are The glimps-es of the land a - far, Where
 4. O bless-èd Book, my hope, my stay, To that fair land point out the way; Where have a com - fort, full and sure, God's bless-èd Word, whose truths en - dure.

Refrain

 help and com - fort, day by day, I find with-in the Book al - way. 'Tis a saints, e - ter - nal glo - ry won, Claim Heav-en's crown when earth is done. 'Tis a I, blood-washed and saved by grace, Be - yond the Book be - hold His face.

light for-ev - er guid - ing Those who walk in it conlight up-on their way, Lest the child-ren err-ing stray; Those who walk with-in its glow, Will life's

- fid - ing, In its prom - is - es a - bid - ing, And 'tis deep-er mean-ing know, In its prom-is-es they rest, And are ever safe and blest;

shin-ing, shin-ing, shin-ing all the way!