

With No Pomp of Earthly Glory

Caroline L. Shacklock, 1881

T. Frank Allen

♩=98

1. With no pomp of earth-ly splen-dor Comes the Sav-ior, prom-ised
2. Hum-bly cra - dled in a man - ger Help - less lies the slum - bering long, Her - ald - ed by an-gel voic-es, Blend-ing in tri-um-phant song; On the Child, Guard-ed by the vir-gin mo - ther, Meek and low-ly, un-de - filed. "God with shep-herds' lone - ly vi - gil Falls the ra - diance from a - far; Seek they us," oh, bless - ed pro-mise! Name all oth - er names a - bove; Hu - man now the new-born Mon-arch, Guid-ed by the east - ern star. Bow befor our sins to suf - fer, But di - vine in match-less love.

- fore Him, and a - dore Him; At His feet your of - fering fling; Child in form, yet Lord of glo - ry, Christ of Heav'n and earth the King.