

Glory in the Highest

Daniel Edward Lorenz, 1885

Daniel Edward Lorenz

♩=100

1. Let the an - gel hosts on high and the sons of men In a
2. O how glor - ious is the news! it can ne'er grow old; Let us
3. What a gift to us is Christ! what a trea - sure vast! He is hap - py song of praise com - bine; God's sal - va - tion now ap - pears, It shall tell it o'er and o'er a - gain; Let us trum - pet notes em - ploy, Wake the more than all the world be - side; We may see His glo - ry here, But 'twill

Refrain
crown the com - ing years With the com - fort of a hope all di - vine.
earth to peace and joy, Christ the Lord has come to dwell a - mong men. Then more and more ap - pear, While e - ter - nal years in Him we a - bide. Then glo - ry in the high - est, in the high - est let us sing! Should a - glo - ry in the high - est, in the high - est let us sing! Should a -

- loud the heav'n-ly cho - rus; Glo-ry be to God on high, Let the
- loud the heav'n-ly cho-rus, let His prais-es ev-er ring!

earth to heav'n re-ply, As the Sav-ior comes with light and with love.