

We'll Be There

Palmer Hartsough, 1900

James Henry Fillmore, Sr.

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. When the Lord in glo - ry com - eth with His hosts in bright ar - ray, And we
2. We shall see our bless - ed Sav - ior and shall know Him in the skies As He
3. We shall see the count - less right - eous ga - thering for their great re - ward, We shall wak - en at His sum - mons in that new and glad - some light, O the won - der, O the rap - ture as we comes to take His child - ren thro' the gates of shin - ing gold; We shall hear the shouts of joy that from un - see the palms of vic - tory that the saints in glad - ness bring; We shall hear the might - y chor - us to the greet the heav'n - ly day, When the dawn e - ter - nal breaks up - on our sight.

Refrain
- num - bered thou - sands rise, As His beau - ty and His glo - ry they be - hold. We'll be Ho - ly One a - dored, As in robes of white they stand be - fore their king.

there, we'll be there, On the re - sur - rec - tion morn - ing we'll be there; We'll be We'll be there, we'll be there, We'll be there, there, we'll be there, On the re - sur - rec - tion morn - ing we'll be there.

we'll be there, we'll be there.