

My Light and Song

Emma Mansfield Johnston, 1888

William James Kirkpatrick

♩=100

1. Why should life a wea-ry jour-ney seem? Je - sus is my light and song! Why should I my cross a
2. What tho' foes at ev - ery step I meet? Je - sus is my light and song! What tho' snares are rea - dy
3. When I come to Jor - dan's roll - ing tide, Je - sus is my light and song! When the waves like mount - ains bur - den deem? Je - sus is my light and song! All my way is marked by love di - vine; Round my cross the for my feet? Je - sus is my light and song! He was first of all to tread the way, He was first to o - ver - ride, Je - sus is my light and song! Thro' the flood His form shall still be near, Thro' the tide His rays of glo - ry shine; Christ Him - self com - pan - ion is of mine— Je - sus is my light and song!

bat - tle in the fray; Now on Him my ev - ery hope I stay— Je - sus is my light and song!
voice shall sweet - ly cheer; I shall Jor - dan breast with - out a fear— Je - sus is my light and song!

Refrain

Je - sus is my light, Je - sus is my light, Je - sus is my light and song; Je - sus is my light,

Je - sus is my light, Je - sus is my light and song.