

The Coming of the Lord Draweth Nigh

Joseph H. Martin, 1893

David Elijah Dortch

♩=100

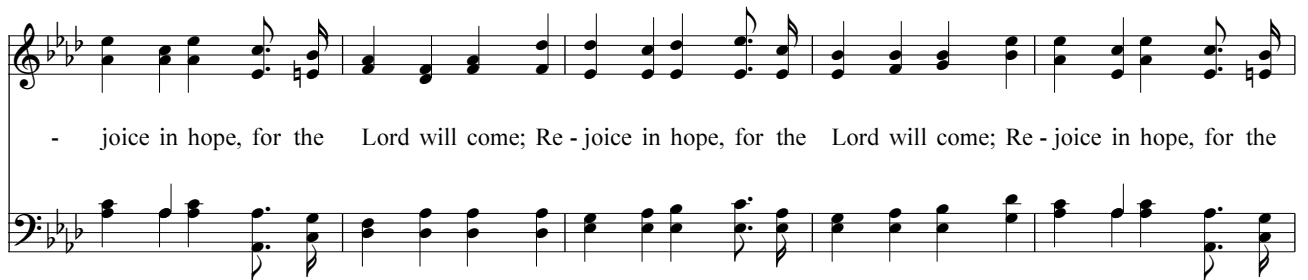

1. Ye peo-ple of the Lord bowed with grief, Who weep and mourn and long for re-
2. In sor-row are you bear-ing the cross, Af-flict-ed, tried, as gold purged of
3. When sins add fears and doubts vex thy soul, When tri-als fierce like waves o'er thee
4. Press on, press on with zeal in the race; Thy God will give thee strength, give thee

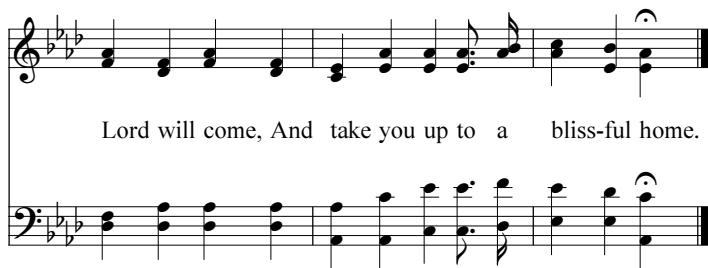

Refrain

- lief Lift up your heads; be glad; cease to sigh, The com-ing of the Lord draw-eth nigh.
dross; With joy en-dure, your hope fix on high, The com-ing of the Lord draw-eth nigh. Re-roll, Have faith, for all will end by and by, The com-ing of the Lord draw-eth nigh.
grace; Faint not, but hear a voice from the sky, The com-ing of the Lord draw-eth nigh.

- joice in hope, for the Lord will come; Re- joice in hope, for the Lord will come; Re- joice in hope, for the Lord will come, And take you up to a bliss-ful home.