

The Golden Land

I. M. Scudder, 1880

George Crawford Hugg

♩=103

1. There's a land that is fair and gold - en, Half its beau-ties will ne - ver be
2. In that land is a gold-en ci - ty, With its walls built of cost-li - est
3. If to Je - sus we're faith-ful ev - er, We shall see all those glo-ries untold; In its gran - deur and glo - ry fold - en, I so stone; Naught on earth can com - pare in beau - ty, With that

- told; And shall gaze on their God - like splen - dor, Which our

Refrain
long this fair land to be - hold.
fair, gold - en heav - en - ly home. In that land, so fair and "earth - sight" can ne - ver be - hold. In that land, gold - en There the sto - ry sweet and old - en, Is the fair and gold-en, There the sto-ry, sweet and old-en, theme of an - gel bands, In that glo-ry, gold-en land; Sing, my soul, sing A - men.