

I Love My Jesus Quite Alone

Johannes Kelpius, before 1705

Composer Anonymous

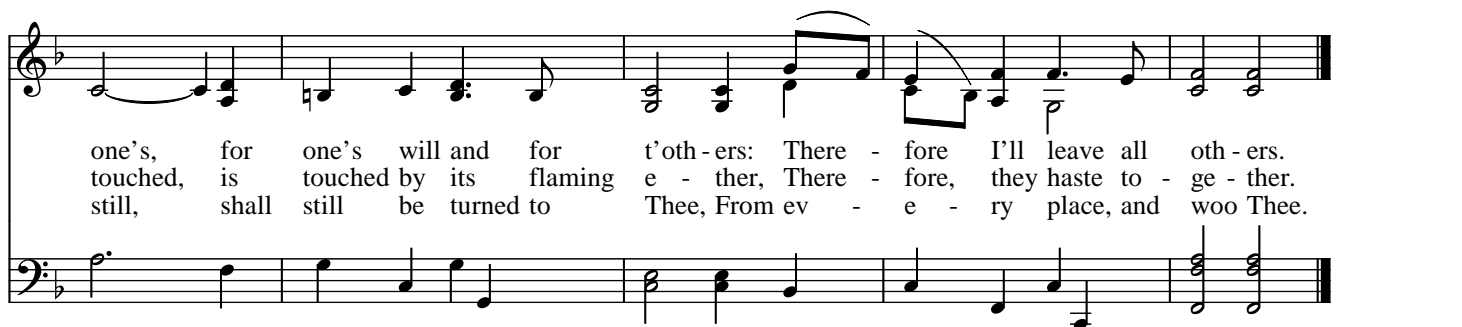

1. I love my Je - sus quite a - lone. The Bride, the Bride-groom of my
2. The mag - net nee - dle err - ing goes, When from, when from the pole dis -
3. And though Thou art like the north star In heav... in heav - en al - ti - spir - it; No o - thers shall my heart, no, none, Through love, through

- tract - ed. And take be - fore quite no re - pose, Till he, till
- fied And I on earth so dis - ta - nt far I'll fol... I'll lov - ing more in - her - it. No man can do at once for two. For he has her at - tract - ed. And since my heart with Thy love dart Is fol - low u - n - de - nied. Still Thee my Light, and my eye - sight. Shall one's, for one's will and for t'oth - ers: There - fore I'll leave all oth - ers.

touched, is touched by its flaming e - ther, There - fore, they haste to - ge - ther.
still, shall still be turned to Thee, From ev - e - ry place, and woo Thee.