

By the Jasper Sea

W. G. Burnham, arr. by Aldine S. Kieffer, 1879

John Harrison Tenney

♩=105

1. I love to think of that hap - py land, By the jas - per sea; Where the
2. I love to talk of that hap - py land, By the jas - per sea; For there
3. I love to think of that hap - py land, By the jas - per sea; For the eye shall ne - ver be dimmed by tears, And the smil - ing face of is no trou - ble, or pain or sin, Where the white robed an - gels Sav - ior dwells on its bliss - ful shore; And His blood - bought ones shall Je - sus ap - pears; For death may not se - ver the house - hold band, When they wel - come us in; To all that is beau - ti - ful, calm and bright, O'er the sor - row no more, For end - less and sure shall His bright reign be On the all ga - ther there on the gold - en strand, By the jas - per sea, by the jas - per sea.

ri - ver of death, thro' the gates of light, By the jas - per sea, by the jas - per sea.
throne of His love by the jas - per sea, By the jas - per sea, by the jas - per sea.