

The Bible

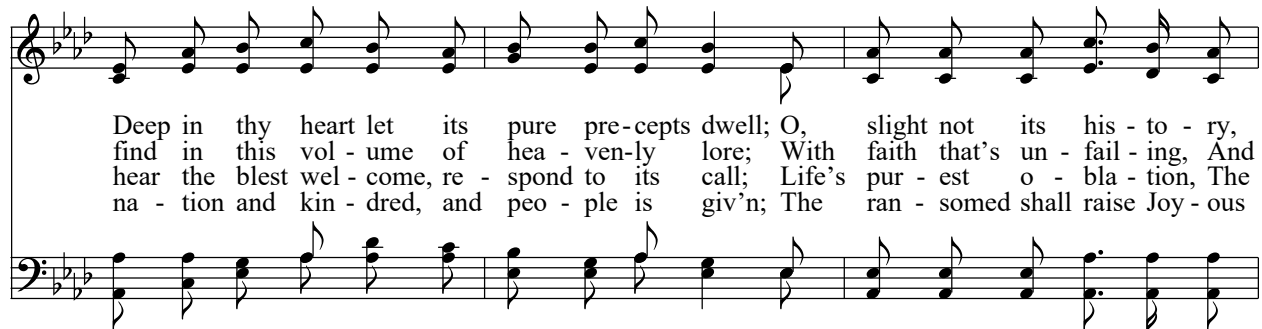

Arranged in The Wells of Salvation, 1881, alt.

William James Kirkpatrick

♩ = 83

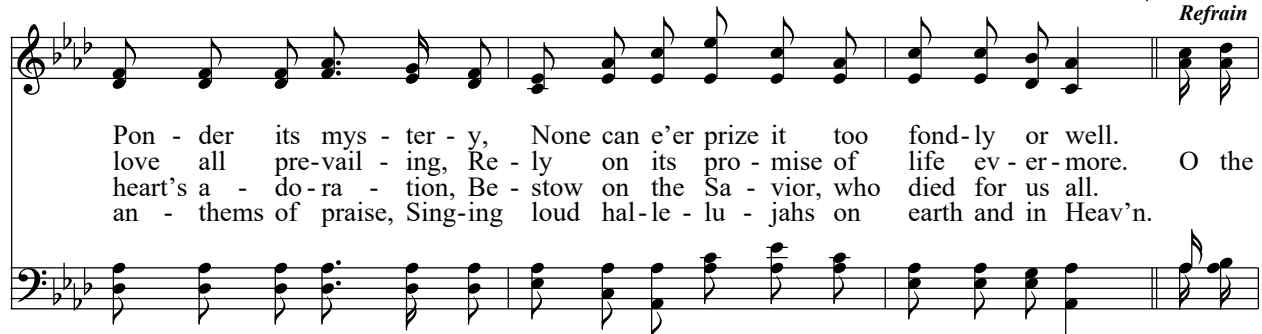

1. O, stu - dy it care - ful - ly, Think of it prayer - ful - ly, 2. Ac - cept the glad tid - ings, The warn - ings and chid - ings, We
3. With fer - vent de - vo - tion, And thank - ful e - mo - tion, Oh,
4. This mes - sage of love From the Tri - une a - bove To each

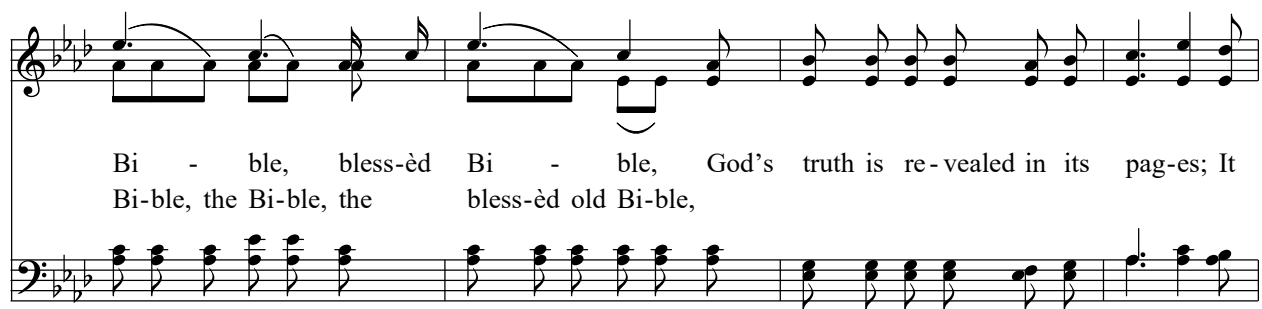

Deep in thy heart let its pure pre - cepts dwell; O, slight not its his - to - ry, find in this vol - ume of hea - ven - ly lore; With faith that's un - fail - ing, And hear the blest wel - come, re - spond to its call; Life's pur - est o - bla - tion, The na - tion and kin - dred, and peo - ple is giv'n; The ran - somed shall raise Joy - ous

Refrain

Pon - der its mys - ter - y, None can e'er prize it too fond - ly or well. love all pre - vail - ing, Re - ly on its pro - mise of life ev - er - more. O the heart's a - do - ra - tion, Be - stow on the Sa - vior, who died for us all.
an - thems of praise, Sing - ing loud hal - le - lu - jahs on earth and in Heav'n.

Bi - ble, bless - èd Bi - ble, God's truth is re - vealed in its pag - es; It Bi - ble, the Bi - ble, the bless - èd old Bi - ble, strength - ens the young and it com - forts the old, It stands like a rock through the ag - es.