

The Coming of Our Lord

James M. Baker, 1907

James M. Baker

♩=98

1. How glo - rious the morn When the Sav - ior di - vine Shall
2. The ran - somed shall stand, Gold - en crowns on their heads, And
3. The pro - phets and mar - tyrs And an - gels of God Shall come in His heav'n - ly a - dorn - ing, The trum - pet shall sound, And the praise Him with great a - do - ra - tion, Who came to re - deem By His min - gle in one great o - bla - tion, Our par - ents and child - ren Will dead shall a - rise In the great re - sur - rec - tion morn - ing; From the own pre - cious blood, And brought us through great tribu - la - tion; Sal - all there u - nite With saints from all kin - dred and na - tions; To east to the west, The north and the south, His own will be then as -

- va - tion to God, Both wis - dom and pow'r, Thro' Heav'n's high - est arch - es join in the song We've cher - ished so long, While here to His Word we're

- cend - ing, A - way from the world, From its pain and tears, Their ring - ing, We'll join in the song 'Round the great white throne, With cling - ing, When home with our Lord 'Mid the great white throng, The songs with re - deemed ones blend - ing. loud al - le - lu - ias ring - ing. Un-to Him who hath re - deemed us, And new song for aye be sing - ing.

Refrain

washed us in His blood, To Him be glo-ry and do - min-ion, Both now and ev-er-

- more; To Him be glo-ry and do - min-ion, Both now and ev-er - more.