

Trusting in the Promise (Hewitt)

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1903, alt.

Hilton Woods

$\text{♩} = 97$

1. Won-der - ful pro-mise, oh, pre - cious word, Com-ing to Je - sus, I
2. Won-der - ful pro-mise! It cheers my days, Turn-ing pe - ti - tions to
3. Won-der - ful pro-mise! Why should I fear? On - ly to fol-low His glad - ly heard; Fall - ing like balm on the trou - bled sea, grate - ful praise; Com - fort from which gloom - y sha - dows flee;

foot - prints clear; All that is need - ful, will He pro - vide;

Duet, Girls' Voices

Tell - ing me my Sav - ior cares for me. So in Him I trust, Je - sus, bless - èd Sav - ior, cares for me. Joy - ful now my song, Safe - ly to the home - land, He will guide. Hum - bly will I go, mer - ci - ful and just; Change - less in His love and free;

love can do no wrong; In His name my trust shall be;
He the path will show, Bet - ter ser - vice may I bring;

And His grace with-in o - ver-com - eth sin, For my Sav-ior cares for me.
 Oth-ers may I bring, jew-els for my king, Sing - ing, Je - sus cares for me.
 Till, in worlds of love, His re - deem-ing love, Thro' e - ter - nal days I'll sing.

Chorus, Unison

Trust-ing in the pro-mise of my Sav-ior King; Ev - ery care to Him I bring.

Trust-ing in His pro-mise, hap-py will I be, For my Sav-ior cares for me.