1. In my weak-ness, dear-est Sav-ior, Help me full-y to re-ly
2. Oft the bur-dens seem too hea-vy, And the cause I can-not see;
3. When the way looks dark be-fore me, And I seem to walk a-lone,

Refrain
On Thy good and faith-ful pro-mise; Guide me with Thine eye.
Then I long to drop the bur-dens, And from sor-row flee. Help me, O my Hear me say, 'mid dark-est sha-dows, "Let Thy will be done."

bless-èd Sav-ior, Let Thy Spir-it seal my own, Till in heav-en-ly per-fec-tion,

I shall know as I am known.
