

One Who Will Not Be Moved

David M. Gardner, 1924

John Prentice Scholfield

♩=145

1. To the Bi - ble I'll be true— I will love and live it, too,
2. For my sins Christ did a - tone— I am trust - ing Him a - lone,
3. Tho' we find on ev - ery hand those who for Him will not stand,

Tho' the world - ly wise shall scoff its ev - ery claim; I have found a
And I know that He will keep me to the end; Naught from Him my Who would bring dis - cord and doubt with - in the fold; We will not be full sal - va - tion in the Spir - it's re - ve - la - tion Of the vir - gin - heart can se - ver, I will love and serve Him ev - er, And His cause and dis - con - cert - ed, from the path of right di - ver - ted, And the ban - ner

Refrain

- born Re - deem - er— bless His name!
truth with cour - age I'll de - fend. I am one who will not be moved; I am one who will of His truth we will up - hold.

not be moved; Tho' the bil - lows may rage a - bout me; I shall not be moved.