

Jubilate!

Minnie Alvina Greiner-Edington, 1901

Robert Frank Lehman

♩=98

1. How ju - bi - lant and clear they ring, Those joy - ous Eas - ter bells; As to and fro their
2. How cheer - i - ly and blithe they ring, Those glad - some Eas - ter bells; As to and fro their
3. How mer - ri - ly and gai - ly ring Those hap - py Eas - ter bells; As to and fro their great tongues swing, How sweet the mu - sic swells; The gen - tle breez - es great tongues swing Of love their mu - sic tells. The Fa - ther sent His great tongues swing How clear their mu - sic swells; The grave could not en - catch the tones, And waft them far and near; Of hope and com - fort on - ly Son From realms of bliss on high, Up - on the Mount of

- chain our king, Death must yield up its prey; The Vic - tor o - ver do they speak Un - to the listen - ing ear. Ju - bi - la - te, Cal - va - ry For sin - ful men to die. Ju - bi - la - te, ju - bi - la - te, ev - ery foe, Christ Je - sus rose to - day. Ju - bi - la - te, ju - bi - la - te,

Refrain

Ju - bi - la - te
 Hear as they gent-ly swing, Ju-bi-la-te, Je-sus Christ for - ev-er - more is King,

Ju-bi-la-te, Ju-bi-la-te, Hear as they gent-ly swing, Ju-bi - la - te, Christ for-Ju-bi-la-te, ju-bi-la-te,

- e'er is King.