

The Lord My Shepherd Is (Fitch)

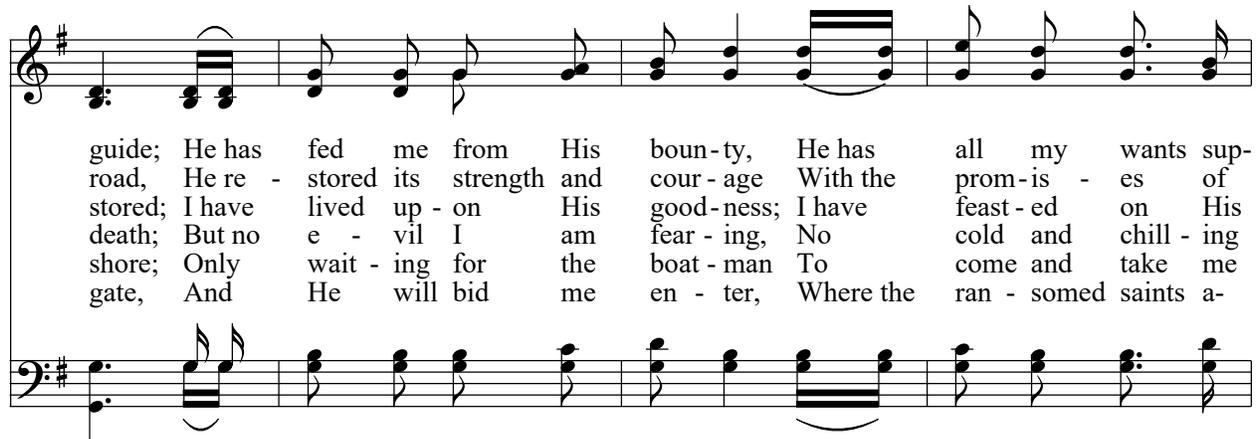

H. P. Fitch, 1905

W. Henry Milford

♩ = 80

1. The Lord has been my shep - herd, My Sav - ior and my
 2. When my soul grew faint and wea - ry With the rough and rug - ged
 3. A ta - ble He has spread me, With the rich - est dain - ties
 4. I am near - ing now the val - ley Of the sha - dow they call 5. And now I've reached the ri - ver; I am wait - ing on the 6. Then when I reach the ci - ty, He will o - pen wide the guide; He has fed me from His boun - ty, He has all my wants sup - road, He re - stored its strength and cour - age With the prom - is - es of stored; I have lived up - on His good - ness; I have feast - ed on His death; But no e - vil I am fear - ing, No cold and chill - ing shore; Only wait - ing for the boat - man To come and take me gate, And He will bid me en - ter, Where the ran - somed saints a -

- plied; Be - side the crys - tal wa - ters, He has led my er - ring
 God; Yes, down be - side the wa - ters And in the pas - tures Word. He has guard - ed me from dan - ger, And kept me day by breath; For my shep - herd still is near me, With His bless - ed staff and o'er; But my shep - herd is be - side me, And He will hold my
 - wait; There I'll need the staff no long - er, No long - er need the feet; Of the rich - est of His pas - tures He has giv - en me to eat. green, My soul has caught the vi - sion, And His glo - ry I have seen. day; And He has walked be - fore me, And led me all the way. The rod, And He will safe - ly lead me Up to the home of God.

Refrain

 hand, Till I sail be - yond the dark-ness And reach the glo - ry land.
 rod, For I'll dwell with Him for - ev - er In the dwell-ing place of God.

Lord my shep-herd is— I shall be well sup - plied; The Lord my shep-herd is— What can I want be - side? My shep-herd is be - side me, And He will hold my hand, Till I pass be-yond the dark-ness And reach the glo-ry land.