

In the Morning

Laura Bell Ogilvie Hunter, 1923

Volney Victor Harrison

$\text{♩} = 92$

1. Sweet - ly I am think - ing of a morn - ing bright,
2. Re - sur - rec - tion morn - ing, glo - ri - ous and grand,
3. Bro - ther, are you rea - dy for that bless - ed day?

When the gloom - y sha - dows flee be - fore the light,
Hap - py they who shall be placed at His right hand;
Have you made the ris - en Lord your guide and stay?

When the Sav - ior's glo - ry fills the earth and skies,
Great will be the glad - ness, deep the sweet sur - prise;
Wel - come then, bright morn - ing, when He bids us rise;

Refrain
Then shall won - drous beau - ty greet our wak - ing eyes.
Then shall won - drous beau - ty greet our wak - ing eyes. In the Then shall won - drous beau - ty greet our wak - ing eyes. In the morn - ing, in the morn - ing, When He bids His saints a - morn-ing, hap-py morn-ing, In the morn-ing, glor-ious morning,

- rise; His saints a - rise; O the glo - ry, crown - ing glo - ry, O the beau - ty, That shall greet our wak-ing eyes.

beau-ty, match-less beau-ty,