

A New Year's Message

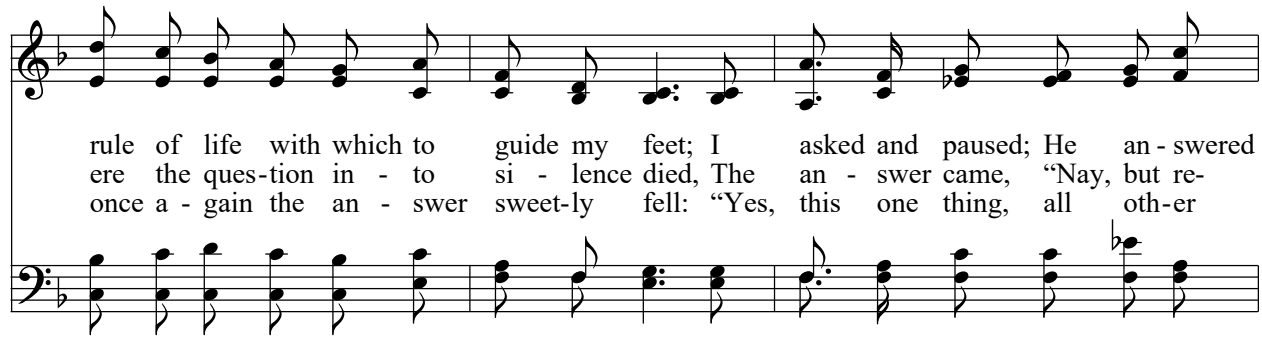

Anonymous, 1898

May Whittle Moody

♩=90

1. I asked the New Year for some mot - to sweet, Some
2. "Will know - ledge then suf - fice, New Year?" I cried; And
3. Once more I asked, "Is there no more to tell?" And rule of life with which to guide my feet; I asked and paused; He an - swered ere the ques - tion in - to si - lence died, The an - swer came, "Nay, but re - once a - gain the an - swer sweet - ly fell: "Yes, this one thing, all oth - er p rit.

soft and low, "God's will, God's will to know, God's will to know."
- mem - ber, too, God's will, God's will to do, God's will to do."
things a - bove, God's will, God's will to love, God's will to love."