

I've Let the Sunshine In

S. E. Hendrick, 1900

J. W. Wilkinson

♩=88

1. When my life with sin was filled, In my
2. Yield - ing not with sin born will, Tho' the
3. Now my faith has strong - er grown, I ap-
4. In this bright and shin - ing way, I'm rewick - ed heart I willed That I'd serve with all my power the prince of call came loud - er still, Till I saw my - self an out - cast, vile with-

- preach the heav'n - ly throne, And I have the Spi - rit wit - ness - ing with-
- joic - ing ev - ery day, For I have no fears, but all is joy with-sin; But a voice did me im - plore, "There is some-one at the door; Will you

- in; Then I could hold out no more, So I op - ened wide the door, And I
- in; And the clear and per - fect light Makes my path - way ev - er bright, For I've
- in; And the Sav - ior is my light, Guid - ing all my steps a - right, Since I've

Refrain

let the bless - èd sun - shine in?" let the bless - èd sun - shine in. O the sun - shine, bless - èd sun - let the bless - èd sun - shine in. O the bless - èd, bless - èd sun - shine, O the let the bless - èd sun - shine in.

- shine, How it fills with joy this hap - py heart of bless - èd, bless - èd sun - shine, this mine; For I've cleared the dark - ened win - dows, I have hap - py heart of mine;

op - ened wide the door, And I've let the bless - èd sun - shine in.