

Are Your Windows Open?

Marianne Sargent, 1900

Frank Addison Simpkins

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. In your sec - ret heart, my bro - ther, Was the
2. Has the noon - tide found you, bro - ther, With your
3. When the even - ing comes, my bro - ther, Will it day with God be - gun? Did you ask His guid - ance all a - long the face turned t'ward the east? Is your trea - sure hid where thieves can ne - ver bring you glad - ly home? Will the work that He has giv - en you be way? Did you give in - to His keep - ing Hours of steal? Have men from your lips been learn - ing Of the done? Will the Mas - ter's voice at ev - en Bid you joy and hours of weep - ing? When the world has called you from Him, did you pray?

Sav - ior's ten - der yearn - ing? Have you told them of His love that all may feel?
an - chor in His Hea - ven? Will it pro - fit, tho' the world you may have won?

Refrain

Are your win - dows o - pen, bro - ther, Are they Are your win - dows o - pen t'ward Je - ru - sa - lem?

o - pen t'ward Je - ru - sa - lem? Have you found the peace the world takes not a - way?