

A Prayer for Eventide

Seaborn N. Vines & Charles H. Gabriel, 1924

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩ = 95

1. Deep in the west now the sun is sink - ing low, And
2. Have I been will - ing my lit - tle cross to bear? Have
3. For - give me, Fa - ther, where I have failed to - day; My skies in beau - ty re - flect its ra - dian - t glow: What have I I been will - ing my bro - ther's cross to share? Have I re - eyes un - veil, Lord, and hear me while I pray; And if for done, O Lord, for Thee to - day? Have I been faith - ful to

- vealed to those who walk with me That I am walk - ing hand in me the sun shall rise no more, Re - ceive me, Fa - ther, to Thy-

Ending

Thee a - long my way?
hand, O Lord, with Thee?
- self on yon - der shore. A - men, A - men.