

There Dwelt in Old Judea

Rossiter Worthington Raymond, 1878

Robert Jackson (1840–1914)

♩=108 Unison

1. There dwelt in old Ju - de - a, A
2. And as the in - fant Je - sus Lay
3. The shep - herds bowed be - fore Him, While
4. For this was Prince Em - man - uel, Who
5. Now God, my dear Re - deem - er, I maid - en fair to see; The mo - ther mild and un - de - filed, Of a bless - ed babe was on His low - ly bed, A cir - cle bright of heav'n - ly light Shone round a - bout His an - gels swift did fly On blest em - ploy, with songs of joy, To fill the star - ry laid a - side His crown; And all to win our souls from sin Un - to the earth came give my heart to Thee; For, by my word, this lov - ing Lord, Shall be the Lord of

Refrain in Harmony

she.
head.
sky. Sing No - ël, sing No - ël, And mer - ry be al - way; For Christ was born, in the down.
me.

ear - ly morn, All on a Christ - mas Day.