

Don't Turn Him Away

Haldor Lillenas, 1910

Haldor Lillenas

$\text{♩} = 97$

1. Be - hold the lov - ing Sav - ior stands Out - side your bolt - ed
2. He stood there when in child - ish play Your heart was free from
3. He stood there when your heart was filled With sor - row, grief and 4. The blood-stained hands of Christ some day Their gen - tle knocks will door, There knock - ing with His nail - pierced hands, As oft - en - times be - care, And now when locks are sil - ver gray, He still is stand - ing pain, And when your life with joy was thrilled, He stood there all in cease, When you at last have grieved a - way The bless - èd Prince of

Refrain

- fore.
there. Don't turn Him a - way, don't turn Him a - way; He has come back to your vain.
Peace.

heart a - gain, Al - tho' you've gone a - stray; O how you need Him to plead your cause On that e - ter - nal day! Don't turn the Sav - ior a -

- way from your heart, Don't turn Him a - way.