

Home of the Blest

Hattie A. Warner, 1876, alt.

D. S. Wymer

♩=100

1. Oh, bright will the light of that ho - ly day dawn, And
2. The an - gels will stand on the left and the right, In
3. The glit - ter - ing towers of the ci - ty of gold Will
4. Our crowns are laid up in the tem - ple of light, While grand will that ga - ther - ing be, When the ran - somed and blest, From the pur - est and sweet - est ar - ray, While we bend, one by one, near the ring with the cho - rus of song That shall rise to the praise of the we dwell in val - leys be - low, And each deed that we do, that is east and the west, Shall stand by the crys - tal - line sea.

glo - ri - fied throne, For the crowns to be giv - en that day. Beau - ti - ful day, cru - ci - fied One, From the ho - ly and glo - ri - fied throng. Will no - ble and true, Will bright - en their beau - ty, we know.

Refrain

beau - ti - ful day, Sweet will its dawn - ing light be; Glo - ri - ous day, glo - ri - ous day,

Crowns wait for you and for me.