

He Never Turns a Soul Away

William Clark Martin, 1914

Rufus Henry Cornelius

♩=100

1. There was nev - er a cry of a sin - sick soul But the
2. There was nev - er raised a re - pent - ing plea, That the
3. Ev - ery seek - er shall find, and to those who knock Shall the Mas - ter at once gave heed; And He made the lame and the Lord ever would de - lay; And there will not be, for there door be o - pened wide; Let the sheep re - turn to the

Refrain
le - per whole, For He glad - ly an - swers all who plead. can - not be, A re - turn - ing sin - ner left to die. He ne - ver turns a soul a - Mas - ter's flock, In the sheep fold ev - er to a - bide.

- way, He ne - ver turns a soul a - way; Je - sus an - swers ev - ery cry, Nev - er a - way,

one need die; He ne - ver turns a soul a - way.